

Floral Inspirations at Alain Ducasse at The Dorchester

Inspired by the RHS Chelsea Flower Show, Alain Ducasse at The Dorchester will offer a floral-inspired Lunch Flower Menu created by Executive Chef Jean-Philippe Blondet and his talented team for the duration of the show.

Highlights from the menu include playful dishes such as the 'Blossoming Tartlet, tender herb condiment', the 'Hereford snails, wild mushrooms, parsley butter' and the 'Lemon sole fillet, red & yellow beetroot', drawing inspiration from spring's awakening. The Lunch Flower Menu culminates with a quintessentially English dessert, 'English rose garden', created by Pastry Chef Thibault Hauchard. The intricate dessert features a rose ganache covered in a thin layer of chocolate, moulded into the shape of a rose, with a filling of fresh strawberries, strawberry gel and fresh mint, and decorated with crystallised rose petals and mint powder. The exquisite dessert is served with a refreshing strawberry sorbet on the side.

Guests can enjoy the Lunch Flower Menu within the restaurant whilst whimsical floral displays created by The Dorchester's designer florist Philip Hammond, span the length of the restaurant's panoramic windows. The ultimate Chelsea Flower Show treat for any green-fingered foodie!

The Lunch Flower Menu is available for a limited time between Tuesday 22nd May to Friday 26th May; 12.00pm to 1.30pm and priced at £65 for 3 courses, 2 glasses of wine, 1/2 bottle of mineral water and coffee/tea per person.
